Australian Soccer captain Paul Wade doesn't only have his attention focussed on on Sunday's Third Test against the Croatian national team at Sydney Football Stadium.

The forthright perpetual motion midfielder said: " Australia desperately needs a run of high quality opponents in order to have a chance to qualify for the next World Cup finals.

"Top flight competition is vital.

"There is simply no substitute for playing against the very best teams that the world has to offer."

Wade, 29, was born in England. He arrived in Australia as an 11 year old and is passionately a dinky di Aussie. He turned out against China in 1986 and has been a dynamo in both club and international football.

The big plus in the first match of the series in Melbourne was the display of striker Jason Polak, currently with De Graafschap in Holland. Polak is still only 24 years old.

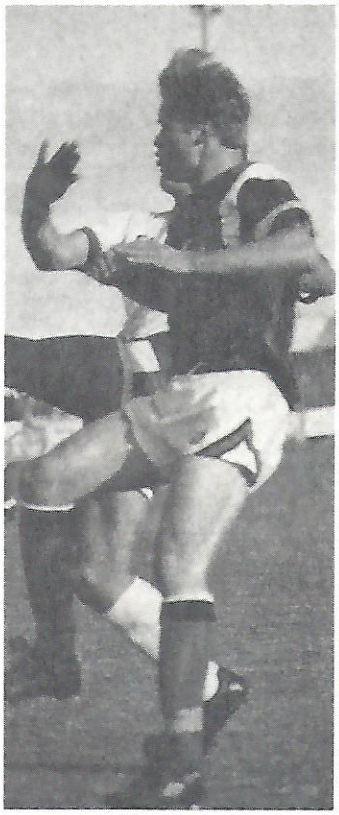
Unbounded enthusiasm! It did the heart good to see loads of youngsters milling around to collect autographs from Warringah Dolphins players at Cromer Park last Sunday. What about it, clubs? Arrange for a special junior day. When Johnny Warren was the Pied Piper of St George thousands of children and parents filled Hurstville Oval. Those days can come again!

CUP PRESSURE AFFECTS CLUBS

By KEITH GILMOUR

It won't be easy sailing for Blacktown City, Sydney Macedonia, Canberra Metro and Wollongong Macedonia in this weekend's NSW Super League round 15 matches.



All four clubs had big Waratah State Cup round 7 ties on Wednesday night,and in the case of the latter pair they meet on Saturday night at Ian McLellan Park after only a three day recovery period.

Sydney Macedonia, with its double-pronged strike force of Scott Gilbert and Marshall Soper, loom large as a team which will bid for a Top Three position for the Championship series.

They should overcome the game St George side at Jensen Park on Sunday.

Joint leader Avala faces a determined Canterbury at the compact Arlington ground.

Whilst Greg Brown is with the Coca-Cola Socceroos, their quality gains Craig and Paul Foster are settling in and Hugo Gimenez and Osvaldo El Ali are in fine touch.

Like Wollongong Macedonia, Canterbury can boast of eight players who have appeared in national league football.

Albin Mikulski's Wollongong Macedonia are now looking the part, and their Canberra Metro clash promises to be a classic.

However they face up to runaway Division One leaders Cyprus United at the Gabbie on Wednesday night in the cup, and the wily Joe Watson believes that his team will put on a mighty fight.

Sutherland obtained a 1-1 draw with Warringah in the first round and will be aiming for an upset at Seymour Shaw Park on Saturday.

The Adamstown defence has been very solid and coach Neville Power will be aiming to pinch a goal or two on the break against Rockdale at Jensen Park on Saturday.

Rockdale appeared dispirited last week and it is up to John Fleming to bring them back on track.

Eastern Suburbs are home to Blacktown City whose young defence is showing improvement.

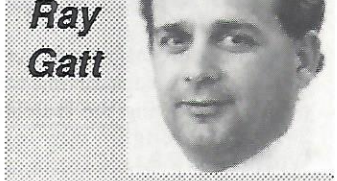
Saints are Alive – Thanks to Dez Marton!



Ray Gatt of The Australian

Just three months before the NSW Super League kicked-off St George coach Dez Marton had one player – Blago Milicevic, on the books.

A week before the first game he had eight players and was still struggling to field a side.

Marton looked back at those times the other day and admitted he wonders how he even got through.

But things have not worked out too badly for the former St George great, who thrilled fans with that power-laden right foot which brought many a goal during the early to mid 1980s.

While some might cruelly consider the Saints, the one time giants of Australian soccer, have slipped to mediocrity, Marton believes there is hope at the end of the tunnel.

Having to rely on a bunch of newcomers and a sprinkling of National League players, Marton and the Saints have made a remarkable fist to be in eighth spot after 14 games.

Marton, ever the realist, admitted his main priority this season was to keep St George in the Super League and away from a drop to the first division – a drop which many believe would signal the end of the club.

"I knew from the start things would be tough," he said. "While the other clubs were just about set and could count on regular players I had to start from scratch by building a senior side and the under 19s.

Marton, who had a distinguished career back home, and Frank Arok have been friends since they linked together with Novisad in the Yugoslav second division in 1978.

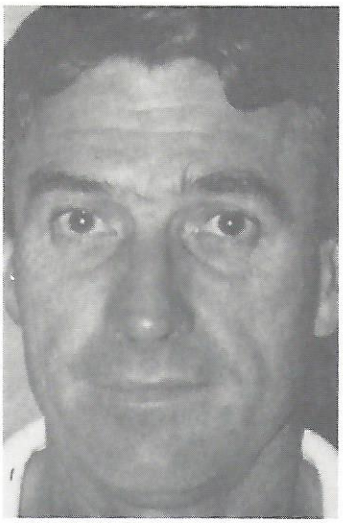
When Arok returned to Australia in 1980 he contacted Marton and signed him to play with St George, who had been relegated to the NSW State League.

Marton was a revelation in his first Australian season in 1981, scoring a phenomenal 43 goals and winning the prestigious Rothmans Medal.

The Saints won promotion to the NSL for the 1982 season and the striker helped them to second spot on the championship then scored a hat-trick as they beat Sydney City 3-1 in the grand final at Penrith Park.

Marton, an administrator with the Australian Defence Industry at Garden Island, spent five seasons with St George and, all in all, scored over 120 goals in his relatively short Australian career.

He left the Saints in 1985 and had half a season with Wollongong City in the NSL in 1986 before joining NSW second division club Yugal as a player-coach.



Dez Marton

Yugal won promotion to the first division and he stayed with the club until 1988 when he linked for half a season with Sydney Macedonia before signing on as Arok's assistant with the Saints.

When St George were surprisingly dumped from the NSL for the 1991-92 season Marton was given the job of rebuilding the club for their return to the Super League.

"We are improving all the time," he said. "The kids have worked very hard and have had good help from our loan player, Socceroo Jason Van Blerk and Glenn Johnson."

The free-scoring Johnson, a St George junior who linked with Marconi last season, has been a revelation according to Marton.

"I have never worked with a kid like him," he said. "He is a great guy on and off the field.

"He is a wonderfully talented player and I have never seen someone improve so quickly.

"Jason, when he is not required for the Socceroos, has also been a great asset for us.

"It isn't easy building a new side, let alone two, and I believe we started 50% behind the rest of the others.

"But things have improved gradually and I am happy with the way we have progressed. If we can avoid relegation then we have done a good job."

Marton, 44, is confident survival will mean the start of a new era at St George and a possible return to the National League.

"Now that the long-running problems with the St George Association have finally been fixed up, I feel confident of the future," he said.

"There are so many talented young players in the district and they now have the chance to progress to first division football and, eventually, the NSL.

"Of course, there has to be an aim and it would be wrong if I said getting back into the NSL was not an option. However, it is obviously going to take some time."

Though he misses the playing side, Marton, who has held a coaching diploma since 1975, says he is thoroughly enjoying coaching.

"It is a challenge, but I love working with the kids," he said. "They are eager to learn and I can see why Australia does so well at youth level There is so much talent."

The Dolphins go Close to Getting the 'Gong

Warringah Dolphins and Avala remain in the cock-of-the-walk position following the Dolphins' 2-1 hard fought win over Wollongong Macedonia and Avala's 3-0 result against Eastern Suburbs United.

Warringah 2
Wollongong Macedonia 1

The Wollongong side fielded a remarkable eight players with National League experience, but went down 2-1 to leaders Warringah Dolphins at Cromer Park.

It took a halftime dressing down by Dolphins' coach Glenn Sterrey to turn his team into a combative outfit, and even then it took them until the 71st minute until Jose Iriate scored from a magnificent curving ball.

No sooner had that happened than Velimir Kupresak headed an equaliser, leaving Wollongong Macedonia coach Albin Mikulski feeling that two points were in the bag.

But Bruce Thurlow brought down a rampaging Iriate and Pablo Cardozo netted the resultant penalty.

The improved visitors had Stefan Janic and Bob Naumov in excellent touch.

Canberra Metro 2
Rockdale Ilinden 0

Ray Junna played superbly as linkman, scoring one goal and missing one, but unfortunately for the Metros he won't be available beyond the end of the month.

Canberra were not really challenged by a Rockdale side which seems to need an injection of enthusiasm.

They had the game by the throat when Tony Lemazina collected his fifth league goal in the 50th minute.

Avala 3 Eastern Subs 0

Andy Brockbank, filling in at sweeper for the suspended Mirko Radosavljevic, was Avala's man of the match.

Although Avala led 1-0 following a 55th minute Hugo Gimenez goal, it was towards the end of the second half when they really began to dominate.

Easts worked hard throughout the first half and had Avala pinned down for 15 minutes of the second.

David Batten played from the start and Chris Ackerley, hampered by a pelvic injury, made way for Paul Foster with 20 minutes remaining.

Batten collected a goal, as did Osvaldo El Ali.

Blacktown City 3
St George 0

The Saints missed Glenn Johnson, out with a torn muscle, and Jason Van Blerk who was off with the national team.

Blacktown had Darren Stewart in the Australian squad, and Geoff Gunning's hamstring problem has made him a long term absentee.

It was Scott Xeureb who collected the Demons' three goals, and he was well aided and abetted by his striking partner, Randell Easthorpe.

Sydney Macedonia 3
Sutherland 1

Goals by Scott Gilbert in the 23rd minute and Marshall Soper two minutes later had the wood on defending champions Sutherland Shire.

Sutherland had dominated early, but two defensive mistakes resulting in those goals were extremely costly.

In addition it was patently obvious that their striker Grant Bard needs more support.

Sutherland has only scored three goals in the past seven games, leaving a lot to be desired.

It was all over when Gilbert scored a late penalty.

Adamstown 1
Canterbury 0

At Newcastle Canterbury were in a defensive frame of mind and the Rosebuds failed to find their normal rhythm.

Dennis King put in a great deal of defensive work, Neil Owens attacked well as sweeper and Chris Jonas was reliable at fullback.

The goal of the game came from a 78th minute Cameron Hudson strike, the ball getting a deflection before going in.

Warringah goalkeeper Peter Gunning fists the ball away as his own defender Mark Brown goes high. Wollongong Macedonia tested the leaders before an excellent Cromer Park crowd on Sunday only to lose 2-1.

ROUND 15 RESULTS:
Adamstown 1 (Hudson) Canterbury 0, Sydney Macedonia 3 (Gilbert 2, Soper 1) Sutherland 1 (O'Shea), Avala 3 (Gimenez, El Ali, Batten), Eastern Subs 0, St George 0 Blacktown City 3 (Xuereb 3), Canberra Metro 2 (Junna, Lemezina) Rockdale Ilinden 0, Warringah Dolphins 2 (Iriarte, Cardozo) Wollongong Macedonia 1 (Kupresak).

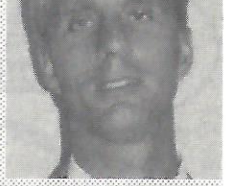
Watch out for Heartbreak Corner



MICHAEL COCKERILL of the Sydney Morning Herald.

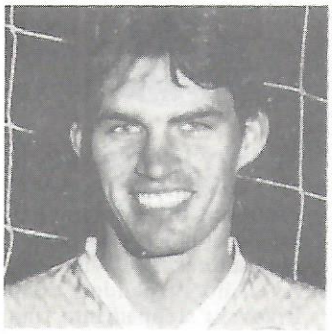
While the soccer community in this country has been concentrating on world youth championships, the Joeys and the Olympic Games, in fact just about everything except the team that matters the most – the Socceroos – our arch rivals from across the Tasman have slowly but surely been building themselves into a formidable World Cup force.

And it makes me nervous.

Nobody should need reminding that it was New Zealand who scuttled out last World Cup campaign with a 2-0 win in Auckland, nor should anybody with a longer memory be able to forget the way the All Whites unceremoniously dumped Rudi Gutendorf's team out of World Cup contention in 1981.

History, certainly, confirms that New Zealand are often our most difficult opponents, and unless we are careful we could be facing the same sort of heartbreak again.

Let me elaborate. While



Fred de Jong – Fortuna Sittard and New Zealand

success at youth level, and more recently at the Olympic (under 23) stage, has created an enormous amount of positive feedback for Australian soccer, it has also had a cost.

The limited resources of the Australian Soccer Federation are now stretched to breaking point in order to cater for four national teams, and in many ways it is the senior side which suffers in the end.

By contrast, New Zealand remain well behind at under 17, under 20 and under 23 level, and although the NZ Football Association continue to field teams in these age groups, they do not make the same sort of commitment.

That means nothing, however, in the heat of a World Cup battle and there is no doubt the Kiwis lift their game every time they play Australia.

Indeed they have been preparing in earnest for their

Australian skipper Paul Wade tries a 1-2 against his All White opponent in the Trans Tasman Cup likely Oceania Group showdown with the Socceroos since the start of this year when they toured Great Britain and played matches against English and Scottish club sides.

While the results were indifferent, among them an astounding 7-0 loss to second division club Tranmere Rovers, the tour proved invaluable in terms of introducing the overseas-based players into the team, and in building spirit.

The benefits were evident in the recent series against European Cup Winners Cup holders Werder Bremen, when the All Whites gave an excellent account of themselves, and more recently in the early World Cup matches against Fiji and Vanuatu.

After three matches NZ have a goal tally of 15 for just one against, and barring a miracle in their final group match in Suva they will qualify in style for the Oceania play-off next May.

The opposition should, quite naturally, be Australia but the Socceroos have yet to open their World Cup account. National coach Eddie Thomson wanted the preliminary group matches against the Solomon Islands and Tahiti to be held over until September, so while New Zealand have already done the job we have still to get our hands dirty.

It certainly will not pay to underestimate these island nations, as former coach Frank Arok discovered when he took the Socceroos to Fiji in the last World Cup and we lost 1-0.

For worry-warts like me the fact that the Socceroo line-up has changed so much this year– from the games against Sweden, to the tour of North and South America, to the current series against Croatia – is a further cause for concern.

If we do get past the first hurdle, and despite these problems our home-based players should be good enough to do just that, then the All Whites will be waiting to lay the trap.

In the play-off matches we must have our best European exiles back in the team, but only if they can participate in preparatory matches scheduled for next January in order to reacquaint themselves with the team.

Frank Farina and Robbie Slater most definitely fall into this category.

So we must face our old foes with our best possible team, a well-prepared team, and a team which will take the right attitude into the games.

Anything less and we can kiss our World Cup hopes good-bye, for the current All Whites team deserves the utmost respect.

Be warned!

SUTHERLAND

★ The game against St George was a big occasion for three of the younger members of the U19 team. Keith Jeffs, an 18 year old fullback who previously played with Casino, had his first full first grade game and the sixteen year old 'twins' Scott Henderson and Martin Kovac made their first grade debut as replacements later in the game. Scott and Martin had already played a significant part in the second grade's fighting 1-1 draw with the Saints, which saw the Sharks play most of the game with ten, and at one stage nine, players due to the loss of almost half of the regular players due to injury.

★ Congratulations go to the young members of the WSL squad, Hanah Burton, Kellie Brown and Melissa Denning, who were members of the victorious Metropolitan East team, winners of the recent state carnival. Further congratulations to Kellie on her selection in the NSW CHS team. Well done girls!

.....BILL ELLIS

EASTERN SUBURBS UTD

★ To capture the feeling of Christmas 'back home' Eastern Suburbs United are holding a Yulefest dinner complete with Christmas tree and Santa, on July 18 at the Coogee Bay Bowling Club. All welcome, call 300 9883 for tickets.

★ This week the Lions, in conjunction with Southern and Eastern Soccer Football Association, are running their first joint coaching clinic. Many thanks to all the players for helping out and getting time off work and studies. Thanks also to those companies who have Kelloggs, Andrews Sporting World, McDonalds and Coca-Cola. In total around 200 applications were received.

★ Pat Casey and Norma Ross – wives of the club president and secretary respectively, must be given a congratulatory pat on the back each for the great work they are doing again this year behind the scenes for match day catering. Their rolls and sandwiches are second to none! Their efforts are much appreciated.

.....KAREN GREGA

ST GEORGE

★ Injuries in the 1st team have given two of our 19s an opportunity to have a run in the Super League side. Both Mark Nestorovic and Sacha Giese have played well when called upon for the first grade duty.

Coach Dez Marton is looking forward to good things coming through the junior ranks. He has a great deal of talent being nurtured in the 19s and several of the players could be knocking on the door of the senior team as the season unfolds.

★ It is important to have good people who perform every week not only in the team, but around the team. St George are indeed fortunate to have four such people in the managers of the first grade and 19s team. Ken Derrett and Joe Urge (first grade) as well as Ian Treharne and David Giesen (19s) have done a fine job in assisting the playing and coaching staff already this year. Their efforts are greatly appreciated by everyone at the club.

.....PETER STONE

ADAMSTOWN ROSEBUD

★ Damian Smith had a good game when he came on as a substitute against Weston in the Waratah Cup. He topped off his effort by scoring a very nice goal. The 5-2 win was a great result against Adamstown's traditional rivals.

★ There have been a lot of compliments about the clothes the Adamstown and from the games. "Very smart and fashionable" is the main comment coming through.

★ I am glad the Blacktown players ate before Dean McWhirter was allowed near the food when they came to Newcastle. I haven't seen Dean move quicker all day!

.....PAUL COLVER

BLACKTOWN CITY

★ The postponement of the game against Avala was a great disappointment for the Demons' camp. Special articles had appeared in the local press and news stories on a radio station. The Mayor of Blacktown and his deputy were invited and Avala have a good following. So all in all the effort was wasted because of the heaviest rain since mid-February. There is little doubt that the John Alers stand would have had few spare seats given fair weather. That's nature for you.

Alan Stroud, the Kiwi goalkeeper, has quit the Demons and headed back to New Zealand. Stroud has returned to the Shaky Isles for personal reasons. The Demons have had little luck with their imports from across the Tasman, but Stroud looked the pick of the three who have been at the Gabbie.

....BOB BROOKS

AVALA

★ New recruit! To further strengthen the star-studded Avala line up the club has recruited David Batten from Warringah Dolphins. Coach Mike Johnson is taking no chances in his onslaught for the title.

★ The Foster brothers, Craig and Paul, both now together at Avala, will add a deal more strength to the already cohesive title chasers.

★ Everybody at Avala hopes injuries do not continue. But if they do at the rate they have thus far, the club will have problems towards the competitiveness of the NSW Super League has taken its toll on other clubs as well. There is only so much a coach, player, or club committee can do to keep players fit and injury free. The rest is luck — good or bad.

WARRINGAH DOLPHINS

★ Danny Barbalace will be missing for the next four weeks as his family is going on a trip back home to Italy. Danny has come up through the Warringah Freshwater youth league and has now cemented his spot in the Dolphins U19 side.

★ All the club's thoughts are with local product Bobby Catlin and his family after the news that his grandfather passed away last week.

.....KEITH PESTER

SYDNEY MACEDONIA

★ U19 coach, Alex Maglovski came out of retirement to keep goal in his team's match against Rockdale. With Tony Avellino suspended, John Rizovski stepped into first grade, leaving no keeper in the U19s. "Magla" came to the rescue and did a good job for his team.

★ Striker Scott Glibert is currently at the top in the leading goal scorer list and also running a close second in the Samsung Player of the Year award. He has gone close but missed out in taking top scorer for the past four seasons and therefore is not getting his hopes up too high. Scott, an Auburn and North Bankstown junior, has been at the club five years after a one year stint with Melita. He represented Australian Schoolboys in 1987 and won the Commonwealth Bank Cup in 1986 with Birrong Boys HS.

.....MATTHEW HOARE

WOLLONGONG MACEDONIA

★ The club delegates who attended the Super League club's dinner had a very enlightening evening and appreciated the hard work that the Federation is trying to do for soccer.

★ The inclement weather saw the washout of the club's biggest game for the year against Sydney Macedonia.

★ The injury situation is on the mend especially with the first team. With only six rounds to go the team is back to full strength and looking at moving away from the relegation zone.

....BOB TALEVSKI.

CANBERRA METRO

★ Canberra Metro could be set for yet another name change. The federation's rules now proclude national names from being included in the title, so of course Croatia cannot be used. Director Ivan Bulum said at the last club meeting, members voted for the name of "Canberra Deakin". He added that it was felt the Croatia Deakin licensed club had been in existence for 30 years and "Deakin" had come to be associated with the sport.

★ The club has again figured strongly in the ACT Schoolboy team for the Australian Championship this year, with five representatives. The players are David Milin, Joe Skritic, John Rakic, Robert Gadzic and Daniel Jukic. Everyone at the Metros wishes the players all the best.

....BOB BROWN

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE

★The influence of player/coach Charlie Yankos with his drive and motivation, was sorely missed in the recent Waratah Cup clash against Canberra City. With the score locked 0-0 at half time the Canberra side came out firing and into the second half the Berries were down 3-0. If Charlie had been there his experience might not have allowed that to happen. However a few stern words to his players from the sidelines saw the team step up a gear and, with the game poised at 3-2 and looking that it may go extra-time, the final whistle was blown. All a matter of too little too late.

.....MICHAEL FOKAS

ROCKDALE ILINDEN

★The Waratah Cup clash with Avala saw the first team debut for two of the successful U19 side, Zlatko Momircevski and Borce Krkovski. Although both had good games they had to settle for second place as Avala went through to the next round winning 4-2 on penalties, after finishing at 1-1 apiece at the end of extra time.

★ Ground news _ the field at North Barton has now been fully covered with turf and next on the agenda is the slab to be laid for the amenities block to be started.

★ The club is currently renegotiating its long and successful sponsorship deal with the National Australia Bank. Now in its fifth year, the club is looking to extend the deal for a further two years.

Division One CYPRUS DRAW - WHILE COAST & MT DRUITT VICTORIOUS

..By PAUL GOODWIN

Exciting wins by Central Coast and Mount Druitt kept leaders Cyprus on their toes at the weekend as they managed an 87th minute equaliser in their 1-1 drawn game with Gladesville at Fraser Park.

Central Coast were somewhat fortunate to snatch victory in the 91st minute courtesy of a free kick which was cleared off the line by opponents Granville Chile and rebounded into goal off the back of a striker's legs.

The free kick was awarded when two players contested the ball with raised feet on the edge of the area and referee Manny Loupis penalised the defending Granville team.

Andrew Ollier's shot was on target, but Alex Aravena's boot off the line was directed straight at Coast player Mark Currow who knew little about it as the ball trickled over the line.

Mount Druitt was able to outfox West Wanderers at The Gabbie on Sunday to record a 2-1 win, regular scorers Darren Pratt and Scott McArdle being their marksmen.

Wests had taken a good first half equaliser from Mark Moffett to cancel out Pratt's first strike in the 12th, but could not finish well enough with their lion's share of the ball.

A recent sponsorship deal has been stitched up for Wests with Subaru. The Under19s are doing the club proud, currently leading the competition, but the seniors need to win the main event more often.

Cyprus United were not at ease on the windy stretches of grass at Fraser Park and Gladesville held sway for much of the match.

Gladesville were in front in the 44th, Bernie Voloder being released by Ian Wood and winning the confrontation with the 'keeper.

Voloder has some more shots saved during the game, but then left the field in the 85th with a nasty gash over an eyebrow.

Soon after that Cyprus managed their equaliser, Manuel Xipolitas seizing on a poor clearance by Gladesville to push his shot past Scott Gemell from 25 metres.

Paul Kyprianou had a top game for Cyprus saving from Voloder, Paul Mamo and David Fleming at various stages, while Gemell had a relatively quiet time of it at the other end.

Petersham and Mount Pritchard found the tricky pitch and strong wind too much of an obstacle to good football at the Wills Ground and failed to open their account, a 0-0 being a rare occurrence even for as strong a defensive side as Petersham.

The last minute header by Glenn Jeffery which hit the bar might have won Petersham the game, but a draw was definitely a fair result.

Campbelltown beat a disappointing Auburn 4-2 at Lynwood Park, the Macarthur Rams being 2-0 up at once stage.

Only holding a single goal advantage at the break through Vernon Porter, Campbelltown rattled in two more thanks to Richie Celarc and Ray Carney and although Auburn then replied with goals by Cristian Ortiz and Moon Cyung Kim, Campbelltown was not finished and got a fourth from Peter Treacy in the 88th.

Lemnos Allstars, currently in the caretaker hands of Terry Patalis, got square with Liverpool City Yugal in the 65th thanks to Elias Augerinos who ran through uninterrupted from half way for a typical solo goal.

Earlier Liverpool had scored with a Craig King header after a free kick by Wally Apanian in the 49th.

Strugglers Polonia got no joy at Arlington Oval in their meeting with Dulwich Hill. The 2-0 win for the home side was no fluke and easily could have been more convincing.

PREVIEW ROUND 19

Pick of the round this weekend is probably the Portuguese derby at the Wills Ground on Sunday where Petersham will be attempting the double over Dulwich Hill.

The first round was a no holds barred 1-0 win for Petersham and a similar result is likely again, even with new coach Agenor Muniz at the helm.

The fixture could still be eclipsed by Saturday's Auburn-Central Coast game at Mona Park between two of the top four contenders.

The Coasties may have too much resolve for Auburn who are not doing so well, and even if it is close it is likely to go the way of the visitors.

Mount Pritchard tackles West Wanderers at Cook Park on Sunday and after a midweek game with Dulwich Hill may have still enough left to win this affair. Wests are attractive footballers, but prone to failure near their own goal

The Mounties aren't exactly watertight themselves at the back, so it could be high scoring for those seeking out a goal feast.

Granville Chile are a very determined bunch of players and will be ready to prove that their lowly position belies their ability when they take on Cyprus United at Garside Park.

This may be their first loss if Granville can find the necessary mettle for the entire ninety minutes, otherwise they will be sunk.

Gladesville and Polonia are featured in a lower end of the ladder event at Christie Park and it is likely that the much improved Gladesville will be the winners of a rather routine fixture, but don't rule out the possibility of a draw.

Liverpool should do better at Ernie Smith Reserve, but will find Campbelltown, back in form now, rather a tough opponent.

Mount Druitt are not at their top yet, but still collecting points from all comers so if they really hit their straps they could punish Lemnos Allstars at Popondetta.

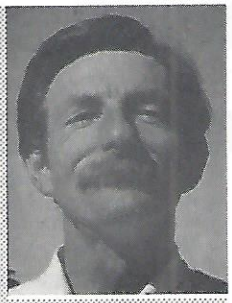
Canberra City, Canberra Olympic go through...

Easts Clean up Granville Chile in Cup



by PAUL GOODWIN

In depth stories for SUPER SOCCER

Eastern Suburbs really got among the goals in defeating the luckless Granville Chile 6-0, and Canberra City upset the Canterbury Marrickville Olympic applecart in last week's round 6 Waratah State Cup matches.

Both Easts and Granville were near full strength for the meeting between two foes from last year's 2nd Division competition, but the anticipated close contest never eventuated.

Granville rattled the crossbar twice early on, but after that the ball ran in Easts favour, with Paul Harriott very conspicuous in many attacking raids.

Hardy old campaigner Frank Leyden enjoyed a rare outing and celebrated with the first goal midway through the opening period, quickly followed by the chirpy Harriott whose delicate chip beat John Perosh in the Granville goal.

The Jerkovic brothers Robbie and Rudi were also prominent, the former assisting Harriott with his second goal and the latter getting his own name on the scoresheet.

Others were scored by Michael Smith and substitute Eric Ferguson, while for Granville even the presence of Dennis Duarte from the 52nd minute couldn't lift their fortunes.

Later in the evening Avala beat Rockdale on penalties 3-1 after playing a 1-1 draw over 120 minutes.

Stewart Porter, in tremendous form, drove through the defence in the 71st to cancel out a nicely struck free kick by Andy Brockbank in the 50th.

Rockdale could convert only one of their four attempts in the sudden death phase and bowed out of the competition.

Avala's reward is a 7th round tie with Canberra City.

Canberra City was successful at Seymour Shaw Park and over the moon about their 3-2 win against Super League Canterbury, who tried everything to recover from being three down after 72 minutes with all goals coming in the second half.

Nick Orlic twice was on target, but it was not enough as the spirited Canberra maintained a resolute defence right to the end.

They join Canberra Olympic in the next stage, following that club's narrow 2-0 win over Pagewood Botany, goals in the last twenty minutes bringing the 3rd Division club's run to an end.

They will play Petersham Lusitanos and it is hoped that both games can be arranged for Canberra, as neither side has had a chance of a home game thus far.

At Ernie Smith Reserve a classic match between Mount Pritchard and Auburn ended in the Mounties favour 2-1, a fair result on the night.

Fabian Kadric was first to score in the 20th for Auburn, but Anthony Versi replied for Mount Pritchard in the 32nd.

The winner was struck by Carlos Vanegas in the 83rd, with his side generally on top for most of the game. They meet Sutherland at the next hurdle.

Finally a rather ordinary affair between St George and Campbelltown saw the Super League Saints victorious 2-0 despite a strong effort by the 1st Division 'Rams'.

John Perosh, the Granville Chile keeper against Mt Pritchard is alert as Jason Cooper, Alex Araujo and David Ratcliffe go for the ball. Big problems were costly for Granville in the Waratah Cup

Best Soccer books BOOK YOURSELF A WORTHWHILE "WALK ALONE"

By STEVE DARBY

I recently had a meeting with Roy Hay who is not only a lecturer at Deakin University, but a soccer fanatic!

He challenged me to pick the best team (eleven) of soccer books I have ever read.

I'm an avid reader of anything and everything on soccer as firstly I believe we never stop learning about the game and secondly we never get to see everybody coach, so it's always good to read different ideas.

My view is that for end of season award nights, young players should bet a ball.

If not a ball, then it should be a soccer book.

All the great things in the world have a literature.

There is no reason why soccer shouldn't.

Here is my best team of soccer books I've read:

1. Eamon Dunphy, Only a Game?
2. Arthur Hopcraft: The Football Man
3. James Walvin The Peoples Game
4. Eric Worthington:Teaching Soccer Skills
5. Fred Eyre: Kicked Into Touch
6. Desmond Morris: The Soccer Tribe
7. Percy Young: The Football Year
8. Geoffrey Green: The World Game
9. Mike Tickner: The Best of Foul
10. Craig Johnston: Walk Alone
11. David Hill: Out of His Skin
12. Bill Shankley: Shankley

I have tried to avoid coaching manuals and the range includes brilliant literature by Green and Young, humour by Tickner and Eyre, trough to Social Science, Morris and Hill.

I won't attempt to review the books as they are well worth searching out.

Sadly the only Australian book in the list is the unique Craig a Johnston biography but I also believe that the following Australian books are excellent reading.

The Socceroos & Their Opponents Laurie Schwab. Soccer Records Pollard Series by Syd Grant. History of (NSW Northern) Coalfields Soccer Syd Grant.

If you disagree with my choice or think you have read better, why not write in to the Editor, Super Soccer, 16 Werona Street, Pennant Hills 2120.

The best entry received by Friday July 31 1992 will be presented with a copy of Craig Johnston's excellent book, "Walk Alone" together with a valuable package of other local soccer books.

The test for supremacy in school soccer was recently decided during the 1992 NSW All-Schools soccer tournament held at the NSW Federation Headquarters at Parklea.

The two day carnival drew together the Combined High Schools (1sts and 2nds), Combined Independent Schools (CIS) and Combined Catholic Colleges (CCC) for boys.

The ladies were represented by Combined High Schools and NSW Independent Schools.

All members of squads should be congratulated on reaching this very high level of competition.

The intensive program of matches provided several top class performances and was eventually taken out by NSW CHS Firsts.

	P	W	D	L	F	G	P
NSW CHS 1STS	3	2	1	-	8	2	5
CCC	3	1	2	-	5	3	4
NSW CHS 2NDS	3	1		-	2	10	8	2
CIS	3	-	1	2	4	14	1

The womens encounter saw a classy CHS outfit overrun the Non-Government girls 8-0.

Here is the first of the lists of the squads:

COMBINED CATHOLIC COLLEGES:

Flavio Novaro (De La Salle Ashfield), Spiro Kladis (Marist College North Shore), Robert Bardetia (Marcellin College Randwick), Jure Billicapic (Marist Brothers Eastwood), William Aloisi (Holy Cross College Ryde), Lorenzo Campagna (Marist Brothers Eastwood), Christian Berrios (Marist Brothers Pagewood), Sarkis Boudamer (Benedict College Auburn), Leo Mauceri (Christian Brothers Lewisham), Andrew Dowling (St Pat's Sutherland), Alvin Ceccoli (St Mary's Cathedral), Simon Fedele (Holy Cross College Ryde), Steve Krallis (Christian Brothers Lewisham), Jim Strounis (Freeman High Bonnyrigg), Robert Scott (McCarthy Senior Emu Plains), Andrew McDermott (St Gregorys Campbelltown. Coach: David Mamo, De La Salle Ashfield. Assistant Coach: Mark De Vries McCarthy Senior College. Manager: Larry Marcerison, McCarthy Senior College. Trainer: Bruce Baker, Patrician Brothers, Fairfield.

Euro '92 Review
IT IS GOALS THAT COUNT IN FOOTBALL

by Steve Darby

There are many aspects to the game of soccer, but not to be really ruthless, "It's goals that count".

Therefore all soccer coaches should be looking at the highest level of football available and saying "how are goals scored at this level?"

The most recent top level football we have seen is the European Nations Cup from Sweden, where we saw on SBS some of the greatest players in the world.

I have attempted to analyse the goals from this tournament and suggest how can we learn from them and apply it to training sessions in Australia.

Here are the pointers I gleaned:

- 32 goals were scored
- 11 goals were set pieces (free kicks / corners / penalties) (34%)
- 7 goals were headers (22%)
- 26 goals were scored inside the penalty box (81%)
- 6 goals were scored outside the penalty box (19%) (three of them free kicks, three of them deflections)
- 29 of the goals were scored with one touch (91%)
- Three of the goals were scored with more than one touch (9%)

The most glaring statistic appears to be that 29 of the 32 goals scored were scored with one touch.

Only the goals scored by Papin of France and Vilfort of Denmark were taken with more than one consecutive touch of the ball.

This points to the question that unless you have an excellent first touch, there is a very good chance that you don't get a second one!

This knowledge would ensure that at training sessions all shooting practices must be conducted with a moving ball and the strikers are only allowed one touch.

The service to the strikers should be varied from all directions and heights, and the position of the striker should also be varied in both the direction they are facing and they should also be on the move at all times.

The statistics are glaring proof that the old training session of the ball passed into the coach for a return ball is as archaic as soccer balls with laces!

Over a third of the goals were scored from set pieces and the value of well rehearsed and well practiced free kicks and corners cannot be underestimated.

It does raise the question of defending at set pieces.

How often does a team practice defending at a corner and how many people should be in a defensive wall?

How many goalkeepers or coaches would be brave enough to take the chance of not having a defensive wall?

As the statistics show, of the six goals scored outside the box, three were free kicks where the keeper was possibly blocked by this large wall, and the other three were deflected into the net.

Possibly a coach could ask his keeper that unless they were facing Koemans of Holland, how do they fancy their chances of stopping free kicks without a wall?

I think it's essential that we watch the elite players in the world and try to construct our training sessions to aim for that standard.

Our best young players need to be challenged!

Surprise Results Increase Trasandino's Lead

Bottom placed Orange Waratahs caused a huge boilover by defeating third placed SSC Zagreb 1-0 at Camdenville Oval.

The defeat means Zagreb was unable to leapfrog over Spanish Club into second position after they were beaten 1-0 by leaders Trasandinos, increasing their lead to four points.

Arncliffe, rejoicing at finally playing on their new home ground at North Barton Park, walloped top four candidate Colo Colo 4-0, while Pagewood moved into second with a game in hand, by beating a disappointing Sporting Peru to the tune of 7-1.

Prospect stayed in touch for a semi-finals berth by playing out a 0-0 draw with Hajduk Rangers, while Alexander got their act together by defeating Hawkesbury 4-0.

All the leading teams in reserve grade recorded wins, with Pagewood remaining on top after a 4-1 win over Sporting Peru, while Hajduk and Alexander stayed close behind.

Division 4 saw a change of leader yet again with Abruzzi taking the lead over Lithgow Workmens, who had the bye.

Abruzzi accounted for Fogolar Furlan 2-0, while Balmain were made to fight hard before finally defeating Macquarie Uni 6-3, to stay in third place.

Leading only 1-0 at half time from a Jimmy Campbell goal, the second half saw both goal mouths come in for plenty of attention, however Balmain proved too strong with Campbell and Andy Matthews scoring two goals each, while Alan McGrowther and Bruce Allan scored the others.

Other games saw Springwood defeat GNS United 1-0, to both remain on 25 points in equal 4th, while Chile Sports are struggling to show some of their Waratah Cup form by only drawing 0-0 with Sydney Uni and New Welcome accounted for CSI Schofields 1-0.

In reserves, GNS United have a three point gap over Abruzzi who suffered a 3-2 defeat to Fogolar Furlan while Balmain maintained the pressure with a 1-0 win.

Greystanes continued on its winning way after their hiccup last week with a 9-0 thrashing of Kingsgrove Apollo, while Maccabi Hakoah scored an impressive 3-0 win over Fairfield Eagles to stay in second.

Sydney Cretans failed to take all the points against URMI drawing 1-1, while Gladesville United came back from a lean patch to record a 2-0 win over Club Calabria.

Meanwhile, top four candidates Pontian Eagles and Phoenix Celtic could only settle for a 1-1 draw while St Josephs scored a narrow 1-0 victory over Western Suburbs.

South Liverpool moved to the top of Division 6, however Glebe Wanderers who are three points behind have two games in hand after their fixture was postponed on the weekend.

The boys from the west accounted for Rockdale Youth 7-2, while Ashbury moved ahead of Marrickville after defeating them 1-0.

Punchbowl scored an impressive 5-0 win over Sydney SF Sports, however Kogarah Waratahs virtually lost their chance of a finals place by only drawing 0-0 with lowly A S Roma.

Marrickville remain undefeated in reserve grade and have an 11 point gap over South Liverpool who beat Rockdale Youth 5-0, while Punchbowl District leapfrogged into third place with another good performance accounting for Sydney S F Sports 7-1.

The SWEEPER'S SPOT

Team of the Week

Kogarah Waratah's return to the Federation after a 20 year absence has been a successful one both on and off the field.

As one of the oldest clubs in the St George district, founded in the 1920s, the club has a strong junior base, currently fielding 18 teams in the St George Association, from which they can now progress through the Federation senior level.

The hard-working committee, led by John Hedison, Ross Skinner and Chris Georgiou, have been successful in securing the excellent facilities at Hurstville Oval, while also gaining two major sponsors in M & G Oysters and Costa Smeralda Pizzeria.

The club's plans for the future are to consolidate within the Federation and to move up the Divisions.

ANTE MILICIC HAT TRICK SCUTTLES FRASER PARK

By BOB FANNING

North Ryde consolidated their second position on the table when they demolished Fraser Park 3-1, thanks to a Ante Milicic hat trick.

From the kick-off, North Ryde asserted pressure and it was Milicic, who after a defensive error, ran around the stranded George Psaroudis and neatly placed the ball into an empty net.

North Ryde continued to mount pressure and were rewarded when Fraser defender John Skotadis, handled inside the box, however Psaroudis brilliantly saved from Milicic to keep Fraser in the match.

This sparked Fraser into action and after several raids, John Fountas headed down for a pouncing John Palaparis awarded.

Peter Fragakis stepped up and placed the ball into the net, evening up the match which remained that way until half-time.

After the break, North Ryde immediately took the lead again, when Milicic stole the ball from Fragakis and he easily rounded Psaroudis to net number two.

Ercan Osman scored Port Hacking's equalising goal.

Fraser went to pieces with this goal and lost all control, making what was a competitive game into a farce.

Milicic, who seemed to be in the right place at the right time, scored number three with a superbly placed shot.

With 17 minutes remaining in the match, substitute

Ryde defence just managing in desperation to clear the ball off the line.

Port Hacking continued their resurgence when they downed the very competitive Concord Juniors 2-1.

Concord began the better, dominating territorially, however failing in the finishing department until the 30th minute when Steve Gilbert netted to give them a well-deserved lead.

Concord paid the price for more missed chances when in the 44th minute a well struck free-kick from Ercan Osman brought the score back level.

The second half seemed very similar to the first with Concord unable to capitalise on the pressure they were mounting, however Port Hacking looked dangerous in attack and with five minutes left Nago Ogman latched onto a Concord defensive mistake to score the winner.

Western District Hellas made amends for their first round debacle when they drew 1-1 with competition leaders Belmore Hercules at Rydalmere.

and have found Belmore at a time of consolidation.

Two other big improvers in this division of late have been Penrith and Bankstown who met each other at Cook Park on the weekend.

What was possibly a fitting result ended up at 3-3 after both sides had exhausted themselves after numerous attacks and counter attacks.

Both sides have now proven of late that they cannot be taken lightly and have had some superb results, taking points away from the front running sides.

Bathurst continued their impressive run at Kelso by beating off a determined Hills United 1-0.

Hills showed plenty of fortitude by attacking Bathurst through the middle and from all reports were unlucky not to have clinched a well earned draw.

But it was Bathurst who are maintaining the pressure on the top placed teams and who lasted out to take all three points.

aboard major sponsor Australia's Wonderland for this year's tournament.

Competition matches are being played at Endeavour Reserve, The Boulevarde, Fairfield West, commencing at 8.30am through the week to Friday July 10, with semi-finals all played at 11am and 1pm on Saturday.

All Grand Finals are to be played at the Gabbie Stadium, Seven Hills, on Sunday, commencing early morning and running throughout the day with the older age groups being played in the evening under floodlights.

Competing in this year's tournament are overseas teams from as far away as United States, Vicksburg Canons from Mississippi, as well as an U14 Kuala Lumpur side.

Australian teams competing are from the Australian Capital Territory, Queensland, Western Australia and South Australia, along with NSW teams from the Metropolitan Area as well as Western Branch, Northern Branch and Southern Branch.

Featured in the opening ceremony will be two United States cheer squads from Weber State and Talbot colleges.

A full program of entertainment has been designed for participants including

YOUTH LEAGUE CONTROVERSY OVER DIVISION TWO's EXCITING FINISH

By BRAD EARL

As the club championship in second division of the Umbro Youth League heads for a exciting finish, there is still much debate about the 'double bye' situation.

One of the two groups that make up second division was one short in terms of numbers this year, meaning teams in that group got two byes while those in the other group got only one.

Of course, the eight points are still on offer for those teams, but they have to play for them, and 'eight out of eight' is a tough proposition against any outfit.

The prize of promotion to first division for the top two has made this a major talking point, particularly given the closeness of the club championship with four rounds remaining, not counting catch-up games.

Of the leading four contenders, Macarthur and Granville get two byes, with Macarthur's second lot of eight points already having been added on and Granville's still to come.

The situation has riled Manly and Nepean, although the irony is that it was the Manly Association's merger at senior level with Warringah Freshwater that created the bye in the first place.

Looking at the first division club championship, Marconi and St George passed the century milestone last weekend, with only one point separating the arch-rivals in their quest for youth soccer supremacy.

Southern Districts follow in the club championship and next come Sydney Olympic and Illawarra in equal fourth place – an excellent achievement for Illawarra in their promotion season.

The shock of the weekend's round came in the U14s, where leaders Marconi went down 3-1 to lowly Blacktown City, having previously lost only the one game to second-placed Southern Districts.

St George make up the three in the U14s, and the leading trio has opened up a huge 10 point gap to a group of teams vying for the last quarter-final berth.

In the U15s, Sydney Olympic showed their style with a 5-0 win over Sutherland to move clear into second spot behind the ever-dominant St George.

Next comes Blacktown City, who drew 1-1 with Marconi after losing to Illawarra the previous week, yet the Demons will face both Olympic and St George in the last four rounds.

Sydney Olympic and Marconi continue to dominate the U17s, with both those teamsare to meet each other again before the end of the league competition.

UPS AND DOWNS ON CENTRAL COAST

Central Coast youth representative teams continued their up and down year with shared spoils from the weekend games.

The under 11 had a convincing 5-0 win over Macquarie City while the Under 12 had a 3-0 loss against the current leaders.

The Youth League teams had a double header this weekend with similar results by each of the teams on both days. Saturday v Rockdale; Sunday v Blacktown.

On Saturday the teams played on the boggy Hurstville Oval where the U13 had an unlucky 1-1 draw, having more of the opporutnities in the game. Best was Kevin Schneider.

The U14 contined its good form to a semi-final spot with a well earned 2-0 victory.

The U15 fell 3-1 while the U17 had to fight out of a 4-0 deficit at half time and held the score at that mark.

At home on Sunday the teams fared the same. The U13 had an exciting 0-0 draw with Blacktown. Best was Scotty Snodgrass.

The U14 picked up maximum points with an impressive 5-1 win. Best was David McGarvey.

The U15 were disappointing again especially after their good early season form going down 2-0 and the U17 played a much improved game to come away with a 0-0 draw. Best were Grant Cloutan, Paul Dowdell, Darryl Harvey, Andrew Eslick and Sam Le Forrest. .....KEVIN BEST
